Review of Le Rocal

Our family had a wonderful and relaxing 9 day stay in June 2017 at Le Rocal. It is difficult to understand from the photos, but the home is a beautiful mixture of traditional and modern. The older part of the home has traditional architecture and decor, while the newer part has modern bathrooms, a modern kitchen, and a gorgeous, huge glassed-in living room. It was the best of both worlds. France was experiencing a heat wave, so we really appreciated the air conditioning and the pool. When we had an issue with the lack of hot water, the owner responded immediately and sent over a nice local couple who promptly fixed the issue. The home is just a few minutes drive to local grocery and pharmacy stores, but the setting is completely private and peaceful. Sitting out at the large table next to the big brick barbeque, watching the kids play in the pool, sipping a glass of local wine while the dinner cooks - it was heaven.

Merci beaucoup Mr. Veraart, et a bientot!
