

“Le Rocal is in a lovely, quiet location surrounded by vineyards. The property feels very spacious with the terrace, pool and large air-conditioned sitting room - great for hot and cooler days alike. The property was clean and had everything we needed for a two-week stay as a family of five. The owner, Carlo, is very helpful, quick in responding to queries and was keen to make sure everything went smoothly. I am very happy to recommend Carlo and Le Rocal as a great place to stay.”
